Aging in Place:

Keeping Your Home and Yourself Safe

Simple, cost-effective ways to prevent falls and make your home more senior-friendly will be described by Tim Lynds of Rebuilding Together

Silicon Valley. The nonprofit agency provides free renovation and modification services for disabled and senior homeowners. Mark Biehl of North Coast Medical will talk next about unique devices to make daily household activities easier. Hazel Simin, an occupational therapist with the firm, can talk individually with you about your home safety and personal activity concerns after the joint presentation.
